Daily News (Bowling Green, KY)

Christine P. Lowe

Published: October 1, 2007

SPRINGFIELD, Tenn. — Christine Parker Lowe, 83, of Springfield died Sept. 29, 2007, at NorthCrest Medical Center.

The Warren County, Ky., native was born May 23, 1924. After being educated in local schools and working for a short time in Indianapolis, she married Joseph Wyatt Lowe on March 7, 1942. They were the parents of six children, five of whom lived to adulthood. Mrs. Lowe and her husband moved their family from Bowling Green, Ky., in 1954 to operate Lowe's Feed Mill in Cedar Hill. She was a member of Cedar Hill Church of Christ and Adams Church of Christ and was formerly a member of the So-Sew Community Club of Cedar Hill. The family was active in the Cedar Hill community until Mr. and Mrs. Lowe moved to Cross Plains, where she worked at the Country Kitchen. Mrs. Lowe worked at Captain D's for 14 years and had been most recently working at the Robertson County Senior Citizens Center. Known by many as "the cookie lady," she baked cookies and cakes to share with many people throughout the community.

She was a daughter of the late John James and Bessie Alexander Parker and the wife of the late J.W. Lowe Sr. She was preceded in death by a son, Michael L. Lowe; three brothers, Floyd, Lloyd and John J. Parker Jr.; and two sisters, Mary Parker and Katherine Robinson.

Funeral is at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Austin & Bell Funeral Home, with graveside service at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens in Bowling Green, Ky. Visitation is from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday and begins at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Survivors include five children, Joseph W. Lowe Jr. and his wife, Suzie, of Celina, Texas, Beverly Pyle and her husband, Jackie, and Mark Lowe, all of Springfield, Wayne Lowe and his wife, Connie, of Cedar Hill and Denny Lowe and his wife, Cathy, of Adams; four sisters, Ruth Keller of Midland, Texas, and Dorothy Parker Dalton, Rebecca Hardcastle and Willodean Brosche, all of Bowling Green; a brother, Jimmy Parker of Bowling Green; 10 grandchildren, Brett Lowe, Kirk Lowe, Cody Lowe, Amber Lowe, Mike Pyle, Danny Pyle, Carrie Zaray, Stephanie Dorris, Samuel Lowe and Joshua Lowe; six great-grandchildren; and several nieces, nephews and close friends.
